

NIIT opens delivery center in Dublin

Chennai, Aug 21:

European delivery centre of NIIT Limited in Dublin, Ireland was inaugurated by Minister for Education and Skills, Ireland, Richard Bruton TD. NIIT is a global company headquartered in India which provides multi-disciplinary learning management and training delivery solutions to corporations, institutions, and individuals in over 40 countries.

The inauguration was attended by the Indian Ambassador to Ireland, Mrs. Radhika Lal Lokesh,

IDA Ireland executives (Industrial Development Authority), Dublin City University President, Prof. Brian MacCraith, and SapneshLalla, President, NIIT Corporate Learning Group. NIIT's customers and partners, senior members of the IDA, and NIIT's leadership team from North America were also in attendance at the ceremony which combined the best traditions of both countries with a ribbon-cutting and a traditional Indian "lighting of the lamp".