NIIT on Wednesday launched the 'eGuru smart science station', designed to help class 6-10 students record and log data from science experiments. More than 160 science activities can be carried out on the eGuru station in support of the NCERT's National Curriculum Framework 2005 guidelines. It is equipped with Internet, word processing, spreadsheets and e-mail.