2023 Maintenance Schedule

User Reference Guide

The Maintenance Window is a prescribed, preventive, and scheduled maintenance operation, planned in advance by NIIT technical personnel for the periodic maintenance of the operating system, networking devices, and servers. This activity ensures that all elements that can potentially cause disruption of services are proactively maintained.

Maintenance activities include:

- > System patching
- > Operating system and database patches
- > Network and storage system maintenance

Maintenance windows are scheduled every second Saturday of the month per the calendar below.
